on—Cummins Estate Dispute.

Daniel Nuuanu's trial for manslaughter was resumed from Friday last before Judge Robinson yesterday morning. Deputy Attorney General Peters presented in evidence several photographs of houses and surrounding objects at Puuloa, where Kaahue is alleged to have been strangled by the hands of the defendant.

S. F. Chillingworth was entered of record as associate counsel for Nuuanu, on motion of Henry Hogan, defendant's chief counsel.

The prosecution had not rested yesterday evening.

Carl Santos, indicted for assault and battery with a deadly weapon, was released on a nolle prosequi requested by Deputy Attorney General Peters.

William Patterson's trial for assault and battery was set for 10 o'clock tomorrow.

MINOR'S LARGE ESTATE.

Alfred W. Carter, guardian of the estate of Annie T. K. Parker, a minor, has presented his fourth annual account to the Circuit Court. It shows receipts of $78,977.89 and payments of $71,661.95, leaving a balance of $7,315.94 to the estate. Judge De Bolt has referred the account to P. D. Kellett, Jr., as master.

Among the larger payments is an item of $56,250 for a 9-26 interest in the ahupua'a of Waikoloa from Lucy K. Peabody and others. The balance from the third annual account was $12,537.57.

The inventory of the minor's estate shows about 93,838 acres of real estate, including the proportion of Waikoloa above mentioned; twelve leaseholds of land, all but one from the Government; loans, investments and cash on hand amounting to $55,555.94, and a half interest, respectively, in 25,000 head cattle, 2,000 horses and all other live stock on the Parker ranch.

Parker ranch reports appended to the account show total realizations of $149,170.32, of which $133,932.75 was derived from sales of 3108 head of cattle. Butter was sold to the amount of 6980 pounds, bringing $2336, or an average of 33.46 cents a pound.

The disbursements came to $138,028.97, leaving an excess of realizations of

WHAT IT WILL DO.

A woman buys a sewing machine for what it will do; not as an article of furniture. A man carries a watch to tell him the time; not as an investment of surplus capital. The same principle when one is ill. We want the medicine or the treatment which will relieve and cure. The friend in need must be a friend indeed, something, or somebody, with a reputation. There should be no guesswork in treating disease. People have the right to know what a medicine is, and what it will do, before they take it. It must have behind it an open record of benefit to others for the same diseases, a series of cures that proves its merit and inspires confidence. It is because it has such a record that WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION is bought and used without hesitation or doubt. Its Good Name is the solid basis for the faith the people have in it; and a good name has to be earned by good deeds. It does what you have a right to expect it to do. It is palatable as honey and contains all the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites and the Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry. In Scrofula, Anemia, Nervous and General Debility, Influenza and Wasting Complaints, it is to be thoroughly relied upon. Doctor J. D. Carrick says: "I have had remarkable success with it in the treatment of Consumption, Chronic Bronchitis, Catarrh and Scrofulous Affections. It is of special value in nervous prostration and depraved nutrition; it stimulates the appetite and the digestion, promotes assimilation, and enters directly into the circulation with the food. I consider it a marvelous success in medicine." Every dose effective. "You cannot be disappointed in it." Sold by chemists throughout the world.

$11,141.35. The items of disbursements were these:

Operating expenses $66,062.74
Permanent improvements 3,151.59
Stock purchases 3,500.00
Dividends paid during year .. 68,464.64

SATISFYING JUDGMENT.

The suit of Enterprise Mill Co. vs. Pacific Mill Co. had another airing before Judge De Bolt yesterday, on a motion for examination of judgment debtor. A verdict was obtained by plaintiff at last term, but when it came to collecting the judgment by execution no property could be found on which to levy. There were moneys due the defendant, however, to get which for satisfaction of the judgment was the object of this hearing.

Hatch & Ballou appeared for plaintiff; Castle & Withington, for American-Hawaiian Construction Co., one of the garnishees; Abram Lewis, Jr., another garnishee, in person. Defendant's counsel at the trial did not appear.

The court ordered Mr. Lewis to pay to the plaintiff $602.64 which he held in trust. The American-Hawaiian Engineering & Construction Co. was ordered to pay $397.36 it owed to the defendant into court.

THE KANOA ESTATE.

The report of Mr. Kellett as master on the accounts of the estate of Kaleipua Kanoa, deceased, shows $2579 on each side, as all the surplus over expenses went to the beneficiaries. The income paid to five legatees was $1548.78, or $308.75 to each. By the last inventory, filed in September, 1898, the estate consisted of $13,300 value in real property and $1600 in personality. It was recommended by the master that a new inventory be filed. This estate is that left by the widow of Paul Kanoa, who was Governor of Kauai and Finance Minister in Kalakaua's Cabinet overthrown by the revolution of 1887. The account here mentioned was approved by Judge De Bolt as previously reported.

BROWN MINORS' ESTATES.

The report of Mr. Kellett, master, on the guardianship of Francis Hyde II Brown, a minor, shows a balance of $1469.70 for the ward from receipts of $2633.70, the latter including the previous year's balance of $573.70. The minor's estate is valued at $27,181. In the same master's report on the guardianship of George H. Brown, the balance is shown as $713.24 from receipts of $3725.85, the previous year's balance having been $665.85. The estate is valued at $23,283.24. Both accounts are found correct with the exception that in George H. Brown's case 25 head of cattle are said to require accounting for. Judge De Bolt approved the accounts on the hearing of the master's reports.

THE CUMMINS ESTATE.

R. W. Breckons, attorney for the beneficiaries, has filed exceptions to the supplementary report of Henry Smith, master, on the 40 shares of Wailuku Sugar Co. stock left by the late Thomas Cummins, father of the late Thos. J. Cummins whose dealing with the Wailuku stock is the subject of the present controversy.

THE FEDERAL COURT.

In the United States District Court yesterday, dates were set by Judge Dole for the various trials under the big conspiracy indictment. That of the first bunch, consisting of five out of the 80 defendants, will take place on the 19th inst. The others will follow in their order.

The trial jury will again appear before Judge Dole this morning.

ANOTHER CLUBMAN IN THE TOILS

Tome Matsui, a Japanese woman, was living happily in Hilo with her husband sometime ago. She was in jail last night. It came about in this way: Yamakawa, alleged to be a member of the Japanese Ten-Dollar Club, made her acquaintance and induced her to come to Honolulu. The Hilo husband was deserted but recently he learned that Yamakawa was keeping the woman here and he came to town and notified the Federal authorities. Marshal Hendry arrested the pair in an alleyway off Hotel street last night and they were locked up.

THREW CHILD
INTO OCEAN*Lillian Young Makes Startling Charges of Cruelty.

Lillian H. Young has filed startling charges of cruelty and brutality against her husband, Thomas H. Young, in a suit for absolute divorce begun yesterday.

Mrs. Young states they were married in this city on January 29, 1900, and there have been born of the union, Margaret, now three years of age, and Florence, two years of age. She alleges that since December 9, 1903, they have lived apart, not, however, due to her fault. She says that although he is of sufficient ability to provide for her wants he does not do so and she is compelled to live on the bounty of friends and her own efforts.

In relating various instances of alleged cruelty, she states that on one evening in July, 1901, at their home in Waikiki, her husband cruelly struck and beat the daughter, Margaret, then aged ten months, and threw her into the ocean, from whence she was rescued by the mother in an exhausted and bruised condition. On this same night he made an unprovoked assault upon her, striking and kicking her on one of her hips, which remained bruised and discolored for days.

In August, 1903, Young is alleged by his wife, while they were living on Beretania street, near Alapai, to have struck and kicked her in the stomach, throwing her violently to the floor. This was done in the presence of several lady friends who were calling upon her.

Again in November, 1903, he became enraged and infuriated and struck and beat her with his open hands and swore at her. He then threw out of the window, the plates, glassware and other dishes which were on the table. He also threw out of the same window, all the food she had prepared for their lunch.

On December 8, 1903, he forcibly struck and beat his daughter, Margaret, now about three years old, and it is alleged the little one was very brutally beaten. The mother says the child's face was pounded until it became frightfully bruised and the marks and imprints of his fingers could be seen upon it for several days. On December 9 he is alleged to have forced his wife out of their house and refused to permit her to return.

She states he is an employee of the street railway and receives between $90 and $100 per month.

St. Douglass.

'Twas the night before Christmas,
And all through the house,
Not a creature was stirring,
Not even a mouse.
When mama awoke with a start and a shake,
And wondered why papa
Was so wide awake;
A rumbling and roaring
Soon came to their ears—
A noise that would follow them,
All through their years.
For down near the bath room
The water rushed out,
And it caused poor papa
And mama to shout.
"Oh, why did we make such a fearful mistake?"

"Oh, John dear, I fear that
My poor heart will break,
Unless you will promise
That tomorrow you'll call
Bath, the plumber, and have him
Go over it all.
And then no more leaks,
For we know that 'tis true,
That folks always call Bath
When there's plumbing to do."
